Today, we Honor our Parents, who for Fifty Years, have enjoyed a life of Christian Fellowship together.

E. Wilbur Walls and Elsie Jackson, were united in marriage in a Methodist Parsonage on April 1, 1908, at Pawnee, Oklahoma. Six Children were born of the Union; two died in infancy; Roy lived until he was seventeen, and three of us have lived to adulthood. There are ten Grand Children and two Great Grand Children. Father, Mother, Mable, Paul and Wesley now live in Seattle.

Shortly after their marriage, Father and Mother were converted under the Ministry of Pearl Wells Carlton, and they joined the Free Methodist Church in 1912. Father entered the Ministry in 1919, and served six Pastorates in Oklahoma, two in Nebraska, three in Iowa, and for eight years was the Superintendent of the Iowa Conference. He was twice elected to the General Board of the Church, and served on the Executive and Evangelistic Commissions. He also served as a General Conference Evangelist. They retired in 1957 and now reside at 2008½ Nob Hill Avenue, Seattle, Washington.

Christian Service has characterized their lives for over forty years of the Half Century of their married lives. The fulfillment of life has been for them the exaltation of the Name of Christ, Probably no greater joys have come to them, than through leading people to Christ, including all of their children.

Today, we Honor our Parents, for their separate contributions to our lives and for the Christian Heritage they have given us.
