

Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary

Today we honor our parents who, for sixty years, have enjoyed a life of Christian fellowship together.

E. Wilbur Walls and Elsie Jackson were united in marriage in a Methodist Parsonage on April 1, 1908, at Pawnee, Oklahoma. Six children were born of the Union; two died in infancy; Roy lived until he was seventeen, and three of us have lived to adulthood. There are ten grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren.

Shortly after their marriage, Father and Mother were converted and they joined the Free Methodist Church in 1912. Father entered the Ministry in 1919, and served six Pastorates in Oklahoma, two in Nebraska, three in Iowa, and for eight years was the Superintendent of the Iowa Conference. He was twice elected to the General Board of the Church, and served as a General Conference Evangelist. They retired in 1957 and he now serves as Chaplain of the Modern Maturity Council of the First Free Methodist Church of Seattle.

Today we honor our parents for their separate contributions to our lives and for the Christian Heritage they have given us.
