Dear Francine,

I thought each of my children should have the information contained in these pictures. I wanted you to be aware of where your grandparents and your great grandparents were buried. I missed duplicating the grave stone of my mother's mother - Anna Louisa Davis. I'll try to get that one to you also.

I've written the information about each picture on the backs -

These are for your "archives"!

With love,

Mother

On May 10, at 10 a.m. in Wilson Hall is the Mother-Daughter Brunch. Becky Lohman is the speaker. I'd be happy to have you attend with me.
