

Mary Alice Janssen

Mrs. Mary Alice Fleming Janssen of Los Angeles, Ca., formerly of Litchfield, died Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock in her home at 6215 St. Albans, following a long illness.

Mrs. Janssen, 57 last April 13, was born in Litchfield, a daughter of Mrs. Alice Kitch Fleming and the late Charles I. Fleming. She attended Litchfield schools and graduated from the local high school with the class of 1948. She attended Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. On Dec. 5, 1967, she married Fred W. Janssen of Gillespie in Los Angeles. She has resided in Los Angeles for the past 27 years where she was employed in the education services division of IBM. She was a member of the Good Shephard Lutheran Church of Highland Park (Los Angeles) where she taught Sunday School classes, and the women's auxiliary to the American Legion post 206 in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Janssen was known for her avid interest in quilting and quilt design, she taught classes for many years.

Surviving are her husband, Fred W. Janssen of Los Angeles, her mother, Mrs. Alice Fleming of Litchfield, a sister, Mrs. Carolyn Shult of Manhattan, Kansas, and two nephews, Samuel Wallace Shult of Hollywood, Ca., and Benjamin Isaac Shult of Lawrence, Kansas.

Services will be held in the Forest Lawn Funeral Home at Glendale, with Pastor Jim Maines officiating. Burial will be in Forest Lawn cemetery, Glendale.