Dear

Wesley and I attended the 2 p.m. Memorial Service yesterday at Forest Lawn Cemetery in West Seattle. It was a pleasant, sunny afternoon with a chill in the air. Francine, Burton and Sylvia came also in separate cars. It was very nice for us to see our children

We met Kris + Linda Wiren and their eldest son, Steve (27 years old and good looking!) I took pictures of them and also Agnes Mae + Bob. These I will send later. Jerry Ault, Agnes Mae's daughter, was very friendly and invited us to a reception after the service at the home of Agnes Mae's brother, Rex Selke, also in West Seattle, on the hill above Lincoln Park.

The minister gave Craig's obituary and then a short meditation. He presented the Christian hope as based in ^{belief in} Jesus Christ and his resurrection. It was very well done. It was the Evangelical message for a grieving family. Two songs were sung, one was the Lord's prayer.

We talked with our children after the service and then they had to hurry off - Francine to a wedding, Sylvia to dress in formal for a Master Builders award night and Burt to help Ralene with a dinner that eve.

We followed Kris and Linda to the reception. The table was loaded with good food. The flowers from the church were taken there + set up at the entrance - 2 funeral pieces on stands and 2 plants. There was a big picture of Craig and a collage of pictures of him.

We wish you could have been here. Everyone was friendly. Bob is 75. Love, Elizabeth + Wesley hospital in lieu of flowers. This I did.
